

I request the Community Bankers Association withdraw their petition challenging the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. A company should not be granted free access to conatact customers via phone if they have specifically requested not to receive phone solicitation. Prior business should not be an allowable exception.